GRANT A WISH

2018-2019 EPSF Classroom Grant Program - West Dodge Station Elementary Wish Request

School	Grant Name	Description	Requestor	Grade	Amount
West Dodge Station Elementary	Language Lift	In order to meet the needs of all 5th grade students at West Dodge Station, we would like to implement IXL Language as part of our Intervention and Enrichment program. Students at all levels will benefit from using IXL Language, as they will be able to work at their individual levels. We have heard feedback that IXL Language has greatly improved student performance in the classroom. The annual on-line subscription fee is $840.00 which would cover up to 80 student accounts. Thank you for your consideration.	Susan King	5th	$840.00
West Dodge Station Elementary	Choral Library Expansion	Choir has proven to be a West Dodge Station activity sourcing musical growth, social inclusion, literacy development, interpersonal development, and community connectivity. Students begin reading octavos in third grade music class, then begin further developing this practice during fourth and fifth grade chorus. Currently, we are requesting new octavos (pieces of music) for students to learn and perform together.	Anne Parker	3rd-5th	$890.00
